 - b. Continuation Waiver Status
 - i. PSD Days voted on by faculty on May 3: October 6th, December 1st February 2nd and April 3rd.
 - ii. Ad-hoc attendance waiver committee- The committee will present waiver to SAC for approval. Data will be collected to reflect the necessity of the waiver.
 - c. Principal: Testing is in full swing with morning and afternoon sessions. The attendance policy has no changes to it as yet. Some school would like an amendment to the attendance policy, which will be more cohesive to their school. Seniors are about complete with their last school year. Information about EOC, FSA, and AP scores should come out in June 2016 so that schools can use the information for scheduling. The school is working on the best way to release students after EOC testing. For safety issues the students cannot be released after testing.
 - d. BTU: New officers were elected and will take office as of July 1st.
 - e. Student Government: N/A
 - f. School Advisory Forum: PTSA would like to have their meeting on the days as SAC and SAF on the same time because most parents want to attend more than one meeting. The next meeting will be on the 19th of May. PTSA need new members a.s.a.p. in order to keep the PTSA from being dissolved.
 - g. The By Laws: Article 3 deals with good representation for the new parents. We would like to have them join the PTSA, SAC etc. Keep in mind that new members will be facilities and helped until they are efficient.

- III. Old/New Business
 - a. USA Test Prep:
 - b. Learnerator/Albert.io
 - c. Election of officers
 - d. SAC Bylaws: The by Laws are important because we will lose a few of members. Freshmen orientation is a good time to meet new parents which will be around mid August.
